

ASSET LIMITS

To receive income assistance, you must have used all other resources that may be available to you but, you are allowed to have some assets depending on:

- The number of people in your family unit and;
- Your income assistance status (regular IA, PPMB, PWD)

What are Assets?

- Equity in any personal property that can be converted to cash,
- A beneficial interest in real or personal property held in trust, or
- Cash assets
- Some examples include: vehicles, a home, personal possessions, stocks, bonds, and cashed value life insurance.

What is “Equity”?

Equity is based on the market value of a property less the amount you owe on it.

Example: your home market value is $250,000 and your mortgage owing is $150,000. Your equity is 250,000 less 150,000 = $100,000

Asset Limits and Exempt Assets:

If you are on income assistance, PPMB, or PWD the Ministry sets limits and conditions on assets.

Assets Rate Table
	Income Assistance / PPMB		Disability Assistance
	Single	Couple, and One or Two Parent Families	Family Unit with One PWD Designation	Family Unit with Two PWD Designations
	Basic Limits
Cash/Savings Limit	$2,000	$4,000	$100,000	$200,000
Vehicle Limit	One vehicle, $10,000 Limit		No Limit

For Example: a single person with PWD status is allowed to have $100,000 in cash or financial products that can be converted to cash and can own a home of any value, as long as the person lives in the home. That is because it is then considered an “exempt” asset.

Exempt Assets:

Below is a list of some of the assets that are exempt from your asset limit.

- Clothing and other necessary household equipment
- A house you own and live in
- A child tax benefit or GST credit
- Business tools
- An uncashed life insurance policy with a cash value of $1,500 or less
- Disability Trusts

What does “exempt” mean?

If an asset is exempt, it means that the Ministry cannot count it towards a recipient’s monthly asset limit.

Preserving your cash asset when you have PWD

If you have or are applying for PWD status, you are allowed to have a trust set up which allows any extra assets (like an inheritance) to become exempt from your asset limit.
